Spring Camp 2007 at Miami Seaquarium®
Brings in great adventures

Miami, FL – (February 26) - Spring Camp at Miami Seaquarium brings great adventures to children who will come face to face with a variety of marine species. Spring Camp 2007 is a great way for your child to learn about marine science in one exciting week. Spend the day seeing marine mammals shows, interacting with animals, playing games and doing arts and crafts in our exciting spring camp. This year's Spring Camp theme 'Mother Ocean Spring Camp' will take place Monday, April 2nd through Friday, April 6th, 2007 and will include a t-shirt, one Kodak photo, lunch, snack, beverages and tons of marine science fun. Each day will consist of one animal show, two animal interactions, arts-n-crafts, interactive games and much more!

Spring camp will be held from 9:30am-4:30pm. The cost for the week is $200 per child and $180 for annual pass holders and siblings. This includes visit to all exhibits, marine shows and animal interactions, such as sea turtles, seal lions, invertebrates, manatees, and other Miami Seaquarium animals. Campers will also be provided with an educational T-shirt, a hot lunch and snacks throughout the day. Early care and late care options are available. For more information visit www.miamiseaquarium.com or to make a reservation, please contact the education department at 305-361-5705, ext. 207.
