THE HUMAN SOCIETY OF GREATER MIAMI ADOPT-A-PET TO BENEFIT FROM TOMMY BAHAMA SAMPLE SALE

Bargains Galore at Miami Seaquarium for Men Only

North Miami Beach, Florida—March 9, 2009--The Humane Society of Greater Miami will host a Tommy Bahama fundraising sample sale on Saturday, March 21 and Sunday March 22, from 9:30AM to 6:00 PM. The men's sample sale will take place in the second floor Bayview conference room of Miami Seaquarium on Virginia Key. There is no charge to attend the event, but guests of the event will receive $7.50 off the price of admission to Seaquarium.

There will be a staggering number of items at the sale—1,100 fashion pieces including: men's shorts and pants in size 34 waist only, and t-shirts and woven shirts in size large only. The prices will be far below actual retail costs and a portion of the proceeds will benefit the Humane Society of Greater Miami-Adopt-A-Pet.

The Humane Society of Greater Miami finds homes for more than 2,000 animals per year. Since it receives no government funding, it depends 100% on private donations and special fundraising events such as this. All monies earned will go toward sheltering more than 250 homeless cats and dogs everyday and supporting important programs like low-cost and free spay/neuter services, quality adoptions, humane education and pet therapy.
