

“CONCERT IN THE KEY OF SEA”

a family performance presented by the acclaimed
FLORIDA YOUTH ORCHESTRA

On land and beyond, the beautiful sounds of symphonic music will fill the air as the renowned Florida Youth Orchestra presents its annual “Concert in the Key of Sea” at the legendary Miami Seaquarium.

The concert will begin at 3:30 PM this Sunday, April 15.

A varied and exciting program of music will be performed by one of the Florida Youth Orchestra’s five orchestra divisions, the “FYO Symphony”, under the baton of Dr. Claudio Jaffe.

The Florida Youth Orchestra is comprised of the most gifted young musicians in all of South Florida. Performers on Sunday range in age from 8-17, all with astounding musical talents and contagious enthusiasm.

FYO staff and musicians will be available to the public to discuss music training, music careers, or provide demonstrations.

A memorable event, in one of South Florida’s most treasured locations!

Admission to the concert is free with entrance into the Seaquarium grounds.

For additional information call Myra Weaver at the Florida Youth Orchestra (954)962-5666.

###